MRS. RAWSON'S WAYS

The Dramatic Unfolding in Open Court of One More Chapter of

HER VERY SENSATIONAL CAREER.

Attempt to Bribe a Detective to Kill Her Banker Husband

BY POISONING HIS PRIVATE BOTTLE.

arranged Affair.

Mrs. Rawson, the wife of the Chicago millionaire banker, is again in court. She is on trial for the attempted murder of Lawyer Whitney. Sensational testimony was introduced as to her past career. A detective swore that she endeavored to hire him to kill her husband, and other damaging evidence was introduced.

CHICAGO, January 22.-Another sensation developed in the sensationally fruitful experience of Mrs. Meckie Rawson to-day. Mrs. Rawson was the wife of Banker Stephen G. Rawson, who began an action for livorce from her. During its pendency Mrs. Rawson's son by a former husband, Ralph Lee, shot and dangerously wounded the banker while sitting in his pew in church, and Mrs. Rawson shot and wounded Lawyer Whitney, attorney for Mr. Rawson, in open court, from the effects of which experience Mrs. Whitney is now in an insane asylum, and for which act Mrs. Rawson is now on trial in the Criminal Court.

To-day's sensation was produced by the reading of the evidence before the grand jury, on the strength of which Mrs. Rawson was indicted, and, singularly enough, this damaging testimony was presented by the defense. The testimony was read from the stenographic report of the proceedings before the grand jury, and included the evidence given by L. H. Bisbee, a prominent lawyer, at one time attorney for Mr. Rawson. Mr. Bisbee told the grand jury that he had been doing business for a man named Bush, from New Orleans. Bush told him he knew a man who could tell him all about Mrs. Rawson and her affairs, and introduced him to Matt Hogan, a detective, and now a saloon keeper on State street.

TO KILL HER HUSBAND.

"Hogan," said Bisbee, in his testimony, "told me he had been in Mrs. Rawson's em-ploy for several months. He said she wanted him to put Rawson out of the way in some manner. She tried to hire him to put poison in his gin bottle, which he kept in his bedroom, and from which he occasionally drank during the night. There was some poison in the house, which had been there ever since the first Mrs. Rawson died, in 1881, and s little of it mixed with the gin, she said, would do the business for him."

Mr. Bisbee said Bush told him that Mrs. Rawson's record was bad from way back, that she was terribly profane and used to drink a great deal. He then told of the negotiations he had with M. A. Driscoll, a friend of Mrs. Rawson, who was manager of Lehmann's Hotel at Lake Villa. Driscoll said he wanted $160,000 for a settlement, for that was what Mrs. Rawson valued her dower in her husband's estate at

I went to Lake Villa to see Driscoll on Friday, and offered him $25,000. He wanted $50,000, but we finally agreed upon Awful Grand Jury Penalty. $32,500. Driscoll said he had come from Mrs. Rawson and represented her. He was sorry, he said, that the settlement could not be consummated before Monday, because would likely be bloodshed in the meantime. I became alarmed at this and sent word at once to Mr. Rawson to be careful. Driscoll said Rawson was guarded daily at the bank and at home, and the only place he was not protected was at church. The next Sunday he was shot at church.

THE OTHER ONE. "Lee, Mrs. Rawson's former husband," continued Mr. Bisbee, "was a deserter from the regular army and a gambler. Hogan told me he was in Washington Territory, but that Mrs. Rawson had sent for him to kill Rawson after he (Hogan) had refused to take the job. He found out that Lee got as far as Milwaukee on his way to Chicago, and that there he received a postoffice money order from Chicago for $20 and got it

The stenographer next read the testimony of Mrs. Hattie Hamilton, a woman who said she lived with Mrs. Eawson before she married the banker. Mrs. Hamilton said the defendant was profane and violent, and swore terribly because Rawson did not pay her son Ralph, who was employed in his bank, a larger salary,
"She said," the Hemilton woman testified, "that she would get even with the old spoopendyde. She would marry him, make his money fly, and then get rid of him. Hogan's testimony was read, and it gave more in detail Mrs. Rawson's alleged at-tempt to get him to murder the banker. ogan told the story of the gin bottle and the poison. The proposition to commit murder, he said, was made to him by her at the Leiand Hotel while he was acting as a detective for her. He left her at once and went over to Mr. Bisbee's employ. Hogan said Mrs. Rawson told him that if he would not kill Rawson she would send for Lee, and

MONONGAHELA NAVIGATION.

Continuation of the Arguments in Condeman tory Proceedings-Colonel Allen in Earnest for the Government. The United States Court yesterday morn ing was comfortably filled with the officers and stockholders of the Mononyahela Navigation Company, and with river men generally, all being greatly interested in the contest going on to ascertain whether or not the Moongahela river was to be free to all navigators. The case was argued before Judge Acheson, and Colonel L. M. Allen and T. B. Alcorn appeared for the United States and R. B. Carnahan and George Shiras, Jr., for the company. Mr. Carnahan argued that no part of a system of works could be taken without just com pensation, and several authorities were cited Colonel Allen, United States District Attor ney, then arose and based his argument upon the following points, for which he cited volumi-

The United States has a right to remove such The United States has a right to remove such obstructions, and any payment the Government may make is a mere matter of grace; therefore, the proviso in the act directing these proceedings is valid and constitutional.

All rights were accepted by the company subject to the paramount rights of the United States, and the constitutionality of the proviso, if so held, will not necessarily defeat the condemnation proceedings in this case.

Mr. Shiras, for the company, then said they wanted also to consider the value of the stock before these proceedings were threatened. He cited several cases, and said the company was not a trespasser. He did not dispute a right to not a trespasser. He did not dispute a right to condemn property as a public nuisance, but the Government is taking property for their own use, though they may not charge tolls.

SOME TALL KICKERS.

People Who Think Their Property in the Suburbs Assessed Too High. The County Commissioners' office was crowded all day yesterday with property holders of Wilkins, Braddock and North Versailles townships, who were appealing from the valuations fixed upon them by the county assessors. Today McKeesport borough and McCandless and West Elizabeth townships will be heard, and to-morrow Braddock, Elizabeth, Chartiers and West Liberty boroughs will be taken up. The appeal of the Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Company, who are assessed with

$201,920 on their property and works in Har-rison township, will probably be taken to court, the firm claiming that they have been assessed

$63,000 too high.

The Westinghouse Air Brake Company will also appeal to court, claiming to have been assessed 20 per cent too high on their land and buildings in Braddock, North Versailles and Wilkins townships. The firm is assessed at $400 per acre on 98 acres in Wilkins township; $300 on 115 acres and $400 on 29 acres in North Versailles; $250 on 130 acres in Braddock township. They are also assessed for $1,200 on buildings in Wilkins and $3,450 on buildings in Braddock. The Union Switch and $1,87mal Com-Braddock. The Union Switch and Signal Company is assessed $94,525 on buildings in Braddock township.

the Coroner. District Attorney Porter says he does not understand the law as the Coroner interprets it, and cannot see his way clear to enter prosecutions charging C. L. ## MISS HAFFA REALLY INSANE, and a Police Lieutenant Says Dr. Williams is the Cause of it.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH! PHILADELPHIA, January 22.—Police deutenant Lyons to-day reported to Director Stokley upon the case of Miss Flor ence Haffa, daughter, of ex-Judge Haffa, of Mississippi, who was committed to the insane asylum of the Philadelphia Hospital for her eccen-tric behavior toward Dr. Charles N. Willams, son of Judge Williams, of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court bench. The report first cites the case that on last Thursday Dr. Williams complained at the Twentythird district station house that Miss Haffa, of 1941 Norris street, was annoying him. An officer was detailed, and after arresting her, released her upon her promising cease the annoyance. On Friday morning the complaint came again, and she was rearrested, and when brought to the station house it was noticed that she was of unsound mind, and her mother, when notified, confirmed this conclusion by saying the girl had gone crazy over Dr. Will-iams' unfilled promise to marry her. The Lieutenaut caused a sensation by concluding: "I desire to state here that there are facts connected this unfortunate affair that will justify a rigid investigation. That Williams is the cause of this young lady's disgrace, both by promise and otherwise, is beyond doubt. There is also a moral responsibility connected with it, and Dr. Williams should answer for having driven such an accomplished lady to the

Connecting Line Will be Built From Greenville to Hudson.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] AKRON, January 22 .- The New York and Ohio Company filed with the Recorder of Summit county to-day a mortgage for $1,000,000 in favor of the Farmers Loan and Trust Company, of New York. The loan thus secured is for the construction of the road which is to run from Greenville Pa., to Hudson, this county, passing through Portage, Geauga and Trumbull counties. The route adopted is that of the old Clinton Air Line. The road will connect at Hudson with the Cleveland and Pittsburg and the Cleveland, Akron and Columbus, and give the latter a new Eastern connection, its present Eastern outlet being by the Penn-sylvania. Local rights of way have been secured for the extension, and the parts from Streetsboro, Portage county, to Hudson will be constructed under the auspices of a local company. Hon. M. C. ## MARRIAGE NOT A FAILURE mind, or disposition can hope to interest or hold men. Bad complexion, dull eyes, a listless nature never did or can attract mankind. On the other hand how many women with clear skin, beneath which the blood can be seen throb-bing with health, bright eyes and life and ani-mation in every movement, make the world a blessing to their husbands, brothers, lovers or friends. The secret of clear skin, bright eyes and animation is good circulation of the blood.

A New View of this great Question which shows how Ladies may retain the Love of their Husbands.

and animation is good circulation of the blood. When the blood is slow the person is stupid. Keep the blood moving. But how? There is only one way and that is to help Nature by a gentle stimulant.

Exercise is a splendid stimulant but it is almost impossible for ladies to take the kind of exercise that will produce health and beauty. But the blood must be kept moving, and the discovery which has done more to add health and beauty than any other known cause is Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. This great remedy stimulates healthily. It is not an intoxicant. Thousands of women who were once tired, depressed and discouraged are now in perfect health and beauty entirely through its use. Many prominent temperance ladies have given it their hearty endorsement, and clergymen and priests in every prominent city use and recommend it. Great care should be shown in buying only the genuine, for no other bottled whiskey has the wooderful qualities which are possessed by Duffy's.

When ladies are kept bright and attractive and husbands are considerate and kind, few marriages will be a "failure."
